Dr. Sunil Gupta Helps Vets Find Work on the Next Conversations with Jeff Weeks August 25

Pensacola, Fla. — Thursday, August 25 at 7:30 p.m. on WSRE, “Conversations with Jeff Weeks” welcomes Dr. Sunil Gupta, a nationally respected retina surgeon and the founder of Retina Specialty Institute. Upon returning from the Clinton Global Initiative Conference, he discusses how he and his colleagues are working to put post 9/11 veterans to work in the medical field. These young veterans experience higher than normal unemployment rates. Dr. Gupta hopes to help returning veterans find long and satisfying careers in the medical field. Dr. Gupta and Jeff also discuss advances in medical science and the overall state of the U.S. healthcare system.

“Conversations with Jeff Weeks” is a half-hour, weekly series that is “personality-driven,” featuring in-depth discussions with unique individuals and leading newsmakers from all walks of life. The program airs Thursdays at 7:30 p.m., Friday nights at 9 p.m. and Sunday mornings at 10 a.m. on WSRE, PBS for the Gulf Coast.

About WSRE, PBS for the Gulf Coast

WSRE is a PBS member station that is locally owned and licensed to the Pensacola State College Board of Trustees operating as a service of Pensacola State College. The public broadcasting station has been serving the needs of the Gulf Coast community through programming, educational services and outreach since 1967. WSRE produces, acquires and distributes programs that address local interests and reflect the diverse cultural, political, geographic and demographic characteristics of its audience. The Educational Services unit for WSRE serves as the connection to teachers, parents, caregivers and children to extend the rich resources found in public television.
